“Lokelani ‘Ohana” on Maui

Co-worker Job Description

Lokelani ‘Ohana is inviting a co-worker to share in the development of a new Camphill inspired initiative on Maui.

We are hoping to find a woman with:

- One or more years experience working in a Camphill or Camphill inspired community or life sharing home.
- A loving, compassionate and kind nature. The person they will work with is a 26 year old woman with autism. She is supported by a day program using applied behavioral analysis and a visual schedule.
- Interest and a commitment in community development with a new initiative.
- Experience or interest in biodynamic gardening.
- An open mind and is interested in a healthy lifestyle including learning about natural foods, neurofeedback, hyperbaric oxygen, facilitated communication, sensory motor integration and would be excited to work with these modalities.

Present work exchange offer:

- There will be hours allocated to working with a person of special needs that pays $14.64 an hour, without extra benefits
- A room in the main home is provided
- One contributes to their own food
- Contributing to care of the biodynamic garden and supporting the work of the initiative
- All personal items are paid for by the individual.
- There are two days off a week.

We would like a one year commitment . There will be a two month trial for both parties. Please visit our website to learn more about us and feel free to contact me with any questions.

Mahalo nui loa, [thank-you very much]
